

Indian FMCG Industry

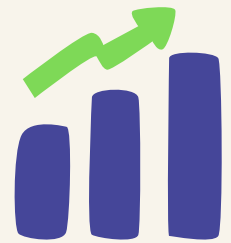

4th Largest Sector in India

Market Size: 110 bn USD (2020)
220 bn USD (2025E)

Growth rate : 14.9% (2021)

FDI: 18.59bn USD (2000-2021)

India's Global Consumption %:
5.8 (2020)

SECTOR OVERVIEW

SECTOR COMPOSITION

Household products contribute to 50% of the total FMCG products, while Urban region is responsible for 55% consumption of FMCG products in India

Food & Beverages
19%

Healthcare
31%

Urban
9%

Rural 36%

Household
50%

By Product

Urban 55%

By Region

CURRENT TRENDS

Technology

Use of technology to create hyper segmentation and target groups for advertisements.

Distribution Channels

Increasing % of modern trade and e-commerce.

Exclusivity

Exclusive trade deals with e-commerce giants for exclusivity

Revenue model

Subscription based revenue model type companies coming up. E.g. Dollar Shave Club

THE INDIAN ADVANTAGE

Policy Support

Relaxation of license rules and approval of 100% FDI in single-brand retail stores and 51% in the multi-brands stores are investing opportunities for global companies

Rural Demand

Rural segment is growing at a rapid pace and accounted for a revenue share of 45% in the overall revenues recorded by FMCG sector in India

E-commerce

Growing smartphone penetration, increased data consumption, and efforts by large companies have increase sales of through modern trade and e-commerce

MAJOR PLAYERS

HUL
Market Share : 14%

ITC
Market Share : 12%

Nestle
Market Share : 3%

Britannia
Market Share : 3%

Follow our page for more updates!

The Consulting Club

Faculty of Management Studies
University of Delhi

The Consulting Club
Faculty of Management Studies
Professor N.D. Kapoor Marg
Delhi University – 110007
www.fms.edu